TO UNION MEN.

THE WORK BEFORE THEM.

At a meeting of the Republican Executive County Committee, at Headquarters, on Saturday, it was, on motion of John H. Stewart, Esq.,

RESOLVED, That we urge upon our political friends in the cities of Pittsburgh and Allegheny, and throughout the county, to devote the coming week exclusively to the perfecting of their party organizations, the appointment of Stock and Vigilance Committees in every Ward, Borough, Township and Election Precinct, the appointment of Challengers at polls, and such other matters of detail as will insure an overwhelming Republican triumph.

Let every patriotic citizen, at this critical hour, at whatever personal sacrifice, give one week of labor to the final preparations for the great struggle now so closely at hand.

Headquarters open at all hours for distribution of tickets, posters for the polls, &c., &c.

JOHN W. RIDDELL,
Chairman County Committee.
T. M. BAYNE, Secretary.

THE CHOLERA.

We have no desire to conceal from our readers the authenticated fact that there have been within the past forty-eight hours in Pittsburgh, several cases of genuine Asiatic cholera. We do not see any reason, as yet, for alarm, but would earnestly urge upon our friends the immediate necessity of forestalling the dread pestilence by precautionary agencies. We must not rest in fancied security because the weather is unfavorable, as the disease has made headway in Europe, even in the depth of winter. Let sanitary reform be at once inaugurated. It is not too late. Hundreds of lives may be saved if every person sets himself at work to place the city in such a sanitary condition as will defy the pestilential visitor. Disinfecting agencies should be liberally used, personal cleanliness and above all temperance should be strictly observed. Our tables should contain nothing but solid, substantial food, ignoring the semi-rotten garbage found at our market places. If the citizens set to work immediately, and be not needlessly alarmed, we may yet escape the full terrors of the epidemic. The cholera is now with us and it is our duty to do all in our power to lessen its ravages.

A S DE ISSUE.

It is a notable fact that during the current canvass the main question has so entirely absorbed public attention that subordinate matters have been quite lost sight of. This is a healthful sign, for it demonstrates that the popular sentiment has been so deeply stirred that secondary questions are almost powerless. Nevertheless, it is deserving of mention that during the period of six years in which the republicans have controlled the affairs of Pennsylvania, means have been devised and put in operation whereby taxes for State purposes have been rendered entirely unnecessary. Under any circumstances this is a result to command respect and inspire congratulations; but under the circumstance actually existing it is really most extraordinary. The war necessitated unusual expenditures of large magnitude; and yet the finances were managed with so much skill and prudence that the expenses of the State Government are abundantly provided for, even while releasing all assessment upon individuals and upon private properties. In this view of the case, it is difficult to see what the people can do better than let the State Government rest with the party that has conducted it so creditably. So long as the State shall remain under republican rule there is no probability of a resort to taxation for State purposes. If the control shall pass into democratic hands it is not unlikely State taxes will again become necessary.

DON'T CONFOUND NAMES.

We regret to learn that some of our readers to whom the Rev. HENRY D. MOORE is personally unknown—have supposed he was the "Rev. MOORE" referred to by our Lawrenceville correspondent "H." in yesterday's issue as one of the speakers from the "my policy" stand on Monday evening. Those who do know Rev. HENRY D. MOORE can attest his cordial appreciation of the Congressional plan of reconstruction and his detestation of the wicked effort of one man to put himself in place of the People's Representatives, assuming for himself and denying to them their Constitutional prerogatives.

The Mr. MOORE who did speak for JOHNSON and CLYMER on Monday may once have been reverend, but as we are told he has eschewed the Gospel and essayed the Law, and especially as he is best known as the man Friday of EDGAR COWAN, the reverend for him will be limited to the Philistines who delight to persecute the "nagur."

In the fourth congressional district (Judge KELLY'S) JOHN WELSH has been drawn out, it is said, and ex-Governor WM. F. JOHNSTON substituted, by the supporters of "my policy." Judge KELLEY will probably not beat him by more than four or five thousand majority.

THE STATES which hold their elections on November Sixth, are Illinois, New York, Maryland, Michigan, Wisconsin, Massachusetts, Missouri, Minnesota, Kansas, Delaware, Nevada and New Jersey.

THE PRESIDENT labored hard, while swinging round the circle, to bring Congress into contempt. He did not succeed in that; but he had no difficulty at all in bringing himself into contempt.

—A man in Texas says he once saw his obituary notice published, and was able to read it with pleasure. The only regret he had was the fear that when he did die he would not have as many good things said about him, for he was young then, and—innocent.

—One of the neatest hits at the President was perpetrated by the orator at one of our Michigan Island towns, who expressed the wish that he (the President) "would continue as he had commenced." Let us doubt if A. J. appreciated the point.

—The largest painting extant is on the ceiling of the Hall of Hercules, at Versailles. It measures one hundred and sixty feet square, and numerous figures are of the length by fifty-two in breadth. It was done by Francois Lemoine.

To the Union Republicans and Voters of the Eighth Ward!

I do not wish to say one word that will grate harshly on the ears of the humblest one among you. If I do I hope you will give me credit for being actuated by no motive other than the good of the great party the principles of which we all love, and many of us sacrificed too much to mention. It is a very common thing to judge men by their actions, and if I were judge you in that way I would say that you are now enjoying a sound political slumber—a sleep so deep and profound that you do not know that there is an active and untiring enemy at work all around you; one that is thoroughly organized, and more dangerous because led on by renegade traitors from amongst you: whose love of bread and butter was more powerful than love of principle. Therefore let us arouse ourselves—let us prepare to meet our enemies foot to foot, and face to face on next Tuesday, so that when the shades of night fall around us the shouts of victory will ascend, and the fleet and willing messenger will convey the glad news to the Republican headquarters that the glorious Eighth ward, always true, has given General Geary two hundred majority.

Do let us go to work; come up to the meeting on next Friday evening at seven o'clock. Let us counsel together, and prepare for Tuesday's work, and, in order that there may be no deception, let all of those who have held, and are now holding offices of honor and trust, in which they have been placed by the Republican voters of the ward, come to our meeting prepared to say whether they are with us or against us. We want no "sitting on the fence." On other occasions we have had to meet Democrats and Copperheads, and in addition to these, on this occasion, we must add Renegades, and we want to know who they are. There are reports in circulation that some of our "old leaders" have let their hearts go out after "My Policy," so let every voter see that his vote is correct, more particularly if one is offered him by any man who has turned three or four political somersaults within his recollection. Let us have a large meeting and prepare ourselves for the contest. M.

The Ladies Fur Trade.

A great many are purchasing their Furs at the present time, for the reason that the stocks are now full and a much better selection may be had now than later in the season; and they act wisely who buy soon, for Ladies Furs always advance as the season progresses. At no house in the city is there a larger stock or finer sportment than at the First Class House of Wm. Fleming, No. 139 Wood street, and as this establishment has been noted for many years for their fair and honorable dealing, as well as for the durability and beauty of their goods, we recommend all who want anything in the Hat, Cap or Fur line, wholesale and retail, to call at Wm. Fleming's.

From Havana—Mexican Affairs—Fire in Havana.

NEW YORK, Oct. 3.—The steamer Moro Castle brings Havana dates of the 29th.

Advices from the Mexican Capital to the 17th had been received, stating that the guerillas were continually worsted by the Imperialists.

As a celebration of the Mexican independence on the 16th, Maximilian made a speech saying that for two years he had struggled, withstanding all the difficulties which the votes of the nation caused him to occupy, and that it was not in troublesome times that a true Hapsburg would abandon his post; and as a majority of the nation had called upon him to defend their sacred rights, the Almighty ought to protect him.

The Semaphore asserts that His Majesty is resolved to put himself at the head of the National Army to fight the Liberals.

General Almonte has resigned the charge of Minister to Paris, but the resignation has not been accepted.

Marshal Bazaine has gone to take command of the Imperial division at San Luis.

Active measures will be taken against Tapico.

Rumors are current that Ortega was President of Mexico, and that a part of the garrison at Chihuahua had pronounced in favor of Ortega, killing Gov. Terrazas, and causing a flight of Juarez to the United States.

It is said that Maximilian will soon start for San Luis.

Escobedo was said to be at Monterey.

Fredow's provision store in Havana was destroyed by fire on the 22d. Loss will amount to $80,000.

Validity of an Act of Congress—Legal Tender Greenbacks.

NEW YORK, Oct. 3.—In a case relative to a ground rent lately decided by Judge Alexander, of the Circuit Court of Maryland, the validity of Congress issuing the Greenbacks as a tender in payment of debts was involved. The Judge has filed an opinion that Congress had no power to declare these notes legal tender. The decision is the first of a number of cases awaiting to decide in the same manner of cases awaiting to decide in the same manner of cases awaiting to decide in the same manner

DECEIVERS AND DECEIVED.

Before the Southern States seceded, they received assurances in every form from the Northern Democracy that in their war with the Republicans, or, as they were more commonly called, the Abolitionists, they would stand by them. Buoyed up by these delusive pledges, and the hopes which those pledges inspired, they calculated with the utmost confidence upon an easy victory over President LINCOLN and his supporters. In the jubilation which the rebels had at Montgomery, on the 15th of April, 1861, over the fall of Sumter, the leading spirits of the Confederacy fondly boasted that by the 1st of May their flag would be floating in triumph over the capitol in Washington; and with equal confidence they calculated upon seeing the Democracy of the North flocking to it in glad submission, with New England left out in the cold.

Never were a set of conspirators more fatally deluded than were the secession Democrats of the South by their Copperhead brethren of the North. But it was not through lack of will on the part of the latter that the traitorous programme failed, but through lack of courage. They cowered like whipped spaniels before the storm of indignation that swept over the loyal States upon the first assault of the rebels upon the flag of the nation. Cowards themselves, they had no idea that the men who had for years resisted the encroachments of the slave power would rush to arms with such alacrity in defence of their country and their principles. So their deluded, cheated, betrayed and befooled "Southern brethren" were left to fight the battle, on their own soil, and not on ours, as best they could. A little cowardly firing in the rear was all they did for them, and that was of no service.

Now, the fight being over, slavery abolished, and the Confederacy utterly blotted out of existence, these copperheads are once more crawling out of their hiding places, and making promises to the South of the great things they will do for them. A weak, vain, obstinate and egotistical man, happening to occupy the executive chair, conceived the foolish project of forming a new party out of these wrecks of rebellion and the old democracy. Fooled a second time with this apparently formidable combination, backed by all the power and patronage of the national executive, the rebels for a while were as arrogant and exultant as they were at the beginning of the war. A second time they have provoked the wrath of the North, and a second time they find that the copperheads, even with the President at their back, are utterly unable to help them. Again they have been deceived, and again they will have to bear the bitter and humiliating consequences.

Before they rushed into rebellion and war they relied upon their dough-faced political allies of the North, as if the courage and fidelity of such creatures were qualities that might be safely relied upon; but by this time they have learned that their last error was worse than the first. Congress held out the olive branch and invited them to come in on terms which, doubtless, they would have promptly accepted had not the vain and foolish man who occupies the executive chair, inspired by the same lying spirit that encouraged them to make their traitorous onslaught upon the nation's life, told them not to do it. Again they have been deceived, and in the mournful accents of our first mother, they may cry, "the serpent beguiled me." Now if the serpent would only let these rebels alone we might make something of them yet, and if they would shut their ears to the lying voice of that serpent, it would be the wisest thing they have done for many years.

STAND BY YOUR GUNS.

The Democrats feel and know that Mr. CLYMER cannot be elected Governor. As he has got to go under, they do not care how deeply he sinks provided they can make something by increasing the extent of his disaster. Hence, not a few of them are eager to barter votes for General GEARY for votes for favorite candidates for Congress or Assembly. Whether they would rightfully fulfill their honorable pledges to vote for the General may well be questioned, for observation teaches that one individual will not unfrequently drive a dicker of this sort with half a dozen individuals, secure fulfillment on their part, and then cheat the whole of them by voting his own ticket without a scratch.

But this is not the only, or main, consideration involved in this case. The issue which dwarfs all others is that which relates to the conflict of authority between the President and Congress. The principal point to be decided is whether this government is a one man machine, or a device by which the people govern themselves through their chosen representatives. Shall Congress frame the laws, under a sense of responsibility to the people? Or shall the President govern, giving his will the force and effect of imperial rescripts? Surely, in such a contingency, it would indicate the blight of infatuation to peril the election of a Congressman through caprice, or frivolity, or personal antipathy, or any collateral issue.

These suggestions are equally applicable to the choice of members of the Legislature. Ordinarily it is not a matter of the first importance who are elected as Assemblymen. But next winter a United States Senator is to be elected in place of Mr. EDGAR COWAN. His treachery to the Union position is not only unmatched, but stands without excuse or palliation. Public justice—the enforcement of common honesty in public affairs—is deeply involved in his humiliation from the Senate. Every vote cast for a Democratic candidate for the Legislature is a vote given to retain Mr. COWAN in the seat he disgraced, and to reward him for his treachery to the men by whom he was elevated to conspicuity and power.

Under any aspect of the case, we entreat every republican to stand fast by his colors. Let all side issue be discarded while the main question is put.

BREAKERS AHEAD.

On several occasions President JOHNSON has expressed the opinion that Congress, as organized, is not a constitutional body. It is reported, on what seems to be competent authority, that he is preparing to take this position in his next annual message, and to fortify it with such arguments as he may be able to command. To what Congress he contemplates addressing this message does not fully appear. His choice in this particular will evidently lie between the Congress that occupied the Capitol last winter, and a Congress he may convoke by the exercise of dictatorial and revolutionary power. It does not comport with our present purpose to press this point to an ultimate solution.

But it deserves serious reflection what effort the denunciation of Congress, as an illegal and usurping body, will have on the national credit, and on the value of public securities. If Congress, as constituted, is an unconstitutional assembly, then all its acts are void, and both the circulating notes and the government bonds issued by its authorization are invalid and worthless. Unless a future Congress, duly authorized, shall recognize their validity and decree their payment, the holders of them must necessarily, under this theory, submit to a total loss. Besides, it may be a matter of uncertainty whether a Congress organized as the President claims it must, to conform to the Constitution, would recognize the Federal or the Confederate debt.

Under this aspect of the question it becomes a matter of grave consequence for all persons who are the holders of federal securities, or who are interested in the maintenance of the present financial system, to determine how far it is prudent for them to go in lending support to the President and his Policy. Financial revulsions frequently start in causes so trivial as to appear altogether inadequate to the stupendous effects which flow from them. But here are incipient elements capable of shaking the bottom temporarily out of all productive industries, and out of all existing financial arrangements. Let the people reflect calmly, and then act as enlightened judgment shall prompt.

NEW YORK.

Our friends in New York are confident of carrying that State by an undiminished majority, notwithstanding the defection of SEWARD, WEED, RAYMOND, DIX and others. Those gentlemen, so long as they stuck to their integrity, were popular favorites, and were supposed to have immense political influence. Hence they imagined that they were able to lead that great State wherever they pleased; and so, to serve their own ends, they undertook to bind it to the chariot wheels of ANDREW JOHNSON. But they might as well have tried to roll back the tides of the Atlantic; and now they stand utterly devoid of power and influence, "with none so poor to do them reverence."

The enormous Copperhead vote of the metropolis—twenty-five to thirty thousand majority—is a heavy weight for that noble State to carry. Last year it was 24,488; yet the Republicans of the rest of the State overcame this, and carried their ticket by 27,857. Outside of the city their majority was 52,345.

And they can do the same this year; but let us of Pennsylvania bear in mind that our election in October will exert a powerful influence upon the vote of New York in November. Let us do anything like as well as Maine did, and our friends of New York will sweep the State by 60,000. And the same effect in proportion will be felt in New Jersey.

MR. CLYMER made a speech at a meeting of his party at Greensburg the other day, in which he made a lame apology for his own bad war record, and indulged in a good deal of coarse abuse of his competitor, General GEARY. We quote a few words from the Post by way of sample:

"Geary says he is a soldier and a Republican—told Irishmen at York he was a Fenian. He praised General Banks for his report on the neutrality; but he did not tell the people that it was Ancona from Democratic old Berks that smoked the report out of Banks. [Cheers.] He told only two-thirds of the truth, and left me to tell the balance. He is in a very dirty ditch, and wants the Irish and Dutch to pull him out. [Tremendous cheers.]"

Of course such stuff as that would tickle the unterrified of old Westmoreland "tremendously." But Mr. CLYMER seems to have a way of telling the truth unwittingly which is very amusing; for just as he was about to pitch into General GEARY, he remarked:

"To make a fight there must necessarily be two parties; but I don't believe this is going to be much of a fight anyhow."

True enough, it will not be much of a fight. He will make about such a fight as his friend VALLANDIGHAM made in Ohio three years ago. Mr. CLYMER, like his friend ANDREW JOHNSON, will do more to damage himself by his coarse and abusive harangues than anything his opponents can say or do. He did not attempt to discuss the great questions now before the country at all.

—The hymns of death are numerous and many strange. A London paper mentions the death of a person from a singular cause. He was playing at "puff the dart," a game which is played with a long needle inserted in some worsted, and blown at a target through a tin tube. He placed the needle in the wrong end of the tube, and drawing in his breath slowly to puff the dart forward with force, drew the needle into his throat. It entered the lungs, and in a few days killed him, the unfortunate man expiring in great agony.

—The Public Ledger has a picture of the Atlantic Telegraph Company. The Telegrapher:—"What is the force in the meaning of this? Dog? A despatch dated Dog?" "Why, you see, I did not want to say New Foundland, because that would be fifteen dollars, so I wrote Dog to save ten dollars."

—A New York paper gives figures to show that the retailers of butcher meat, according to the present prices, realize about $6 50 on the carcases of every sheep, and $36 00 on every eight hundred pounds of beef—over 35 per cent. in the one instance, and about 27 per cent. in the other.

—The American Social Science Association holds its third general, and its second annual meeting in New Haven, Ct., on the 9th of October, continuing through two or three days. The Society is composed of some of the most eminent philanthropists and scholars in the country.

—Mr. Riley's order in the School Committee, to provide books free of expense to the children of the soldiers and sailors who served honorably in the late war, no doubt will be adopted. It is so just that one can almost say Mr. Riley is entitled to thanks for the proposition.

—Chickenpox said to be very numerous in Bland county, Virginia. A guest many years ago, at a public house, is reported to have been devoured by chickenpox, and on Wednesday last one entered the parlor of Mr. Hiram Chandler and killed his dog.

BROWN'S VERMIFUGE COMFITS, OR WORM LOZENGES.—Much sickness undoubtedly, with children and adults, attributed to other causes, is occasioned by worms. The "VERMIFUGE COMFITS," although effectual in destroying worms, can do no positive injury to the most delicate child. This valuable combination has been successfully used by physicians, and found to be safe and sure in eradicating worms, so hurtful to children.

Children having worms require immediate attention, as neglect of the trouble often causes prolonged sickness.

Symptoms of worms in children are often overlooked. Worms in the stomach and bowels cause irritation which can be removed only by the use of a sure remedy. The combination of ingredients used in making BROWN'S "VERMIFUGE COMFITS" is such as to give the best possible effect with safety.

WORDS OF VITAL INTEREST.—Will the thousands who read columns of frivolous verbiage every day devote FIVE MINUTES to the perusal of a few facts which concern them nearly? our text is HEALTH, and we will put our commentary into a nutshell. WEAKNESS is indirectly the cause of all sickness; for if nature be strong enough to resist the morbid influences which produce illness, of course they are powerless. Seek strength, therefore. Invigorate and reanimate the system. When the quicksilver ranges from 80 to 90 degrees in the shade, the most athletic are enfeebled, and the weak are prostrated. It is at such a time that such an invigorator as HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS is urgently needed. What are the effects of this rare Vegetable Tonic? Mold that all who have known its benefits could evidence their experience into this paragraph. They would tell the healthy to protect their health they must use this great safeguard against the debilitating influences. They would exhort the weak to discard all disorderly and impure stimulants and rally to this wholesome and unfailing tonic, and alternative as the shipwrecked mariner would cling to a raft in a stormy sea. They would, of dyspeptic pangs relieved, of appetite restored, of the blood purified, of headaches cured, of disordered functions regulated, of nervousness dissipated, of miasmatic diseases baffled, of fever and ague cured. Over pain, assisted arrested of heat, privation and toil defied, of hope reanimated, and cheerfulness restored. Such are the effects of HOSTETTER'S BITTERS. oct2

CITY AND SUBURBAN.

(ADDITIONAL LOCAL NEWS ON FIRST PAGE.)

Criminal Court.

Court met as usual yesterday morning, Judges Mellon and Brown on the bench.

The jury in the case of Wm. Simpson, indicted for illegal liquor selling, returned a verdict of not guilty, the defendant to pay the cost in one case, and the county to pay the costs in the other two cases.

The jury in the case of Clay Crider, tried for bigamy, returned again, and being still unable to agree, were discharged.

Charles Brown, convicted of burglary a few days since, was brought into court and sentenced to undergo an imprisonment of five years in the Western Penitentiary.

John McGeiger, convicted on Tuesday on a charge of buggary, was sentenced to an imprisonment of two years in the Penitentiary.

Fred Albright was placed on trial on a charge of selling liquor without license. The jury returned a verdict of not guilty and directed the county to pay the costs.

The next case was that of Wm. Loughry, indicted for assault and battery, on oath of Patrick Kearny. Our readers will remember that on the night of June 22d last, Patrick Kearney, the prosecutor, had a very large sized disturbance with the Harrington's, the Loughrey's and some other parties in Church alley, near Sixth street. The facts of the case were involved in a vast amount of uncertainty, the only thing that was clearly ascertained, being the fact that Kearney got the worst of it. Several hearings were had in the cases growing out of the disturbance, and the trial yesterday was the result. The jury returned a verdict of not guilty, and ordered the prosecutor to pay the costs.

Sarah Loughrey, another of the parties in the riot aforesaid, was next placed on trial on a similar charge of the same prosecutor. A verdict of not guilty was returned and each party to pay half the costs.

Thomas Loughry was arraigned, still at the instance of Kearny, for assault and battery, at the time and place mentioned. He plead guilty to the charge and was ordered to pay a fine of $5 and the costs of prosecution.

The next case was that of John Lupe, tried for assault and battery with intent to kill. The alleged assault occurred at Mansfield station, on the night of July 31. It seems that the prosecutor, whose name is Ellis Nonnon alias Sharpneck, is a carpenter who has been at work in the neighborhood of Mansfield for the previous two months. He had in his employ the defendant, John W. Lupe, whom he owed some twelve dollars. On the evening mentioned the two were together at the boarding house of Mrs. Swan, and Lupe asked Nonnon for the money. Nonnon answered that Lupe had not acted like a man, he should not pay him a cent. Lupe then sat down upon Sharpneck's tool chest and declared that he (Sharpneck) could not take it away until he paid him the money. Some more words followed when Nonnon went down to pick up a sharp piece of limestone and start towards the house. Henry Hull saw the act and told him he had better not attack Lupe with that stone. Nonnon replied that he struck at Hull with the stone and then went into the house with the stone still in his hand. He went straight to where Lupe was sitting and struck him a violent blow with the stone, cutting an ugly gash over the left temple. He then started out at the door, Lupe following him with his revolver in his hand. When they got outside Lupe drew his revolver and fired, wounding Nonnon in the lower part of the back the ball grazing the spine and injuring it so severely that the wounded man was helpless for a long time. Lupe was arrested and committed to jail to await a hearing. He was recommitted from time to time, and at last was fully committed for trial. Sharpneck has not been able to appear against him until now. The case yesterday occupied some two hours and a half, and after a short absence the jury returned a verdict of guilty, but recommended the prisoner to the mercy of the Court. The convicted man was then remanded for sentence.

Abraham Griffith was then brought up on a charge of assault and battery with intent to commit a rape on the person of Mary Roogan, a little girl not nine years of age. The circumstances of the case are as follows: At about five o'clock on Monday evening, July 9th, little Mary Roogan and two other little girls were playing together in a brick yard on Boyd's Hill. A mulatto named man came up to them and asked them if they wanted money to buy candy. He offered his pocket-book to the smallest girl, a child of four years old. As he attempted to take hold of her, however, she ran screaming away. Her sister, aged of six years, followed her more deliberately and saw the man offer Mary Roogan a dollar, take her by the hand and pull her into a shed. The little girl ran and told Mrs. Roogan, who immediately, with the other girls' mother, ran to the spot, armed with bricks, and pushed open the door. Griffith rushed from the room, and put his hand into his pocket, apparently to draw a revolver, but seeing men approaching, ran swiftly away.

Those who saw him were able to describe him and the clothes he wore. Officer A. J. Moon found the description to suit Abraham Griffiths, a man tolerable well known to the police, and arrested him. Subsequently Griffiths was taken with others into a room where Mrs. Roogan was sitting, and she immediately identified him as the man she saw on the evening of the attempted outrage. The jury in the case was still out last evening at the time of adjournment.

The next case was that of Bernard Higgins, indicted for stealing a watch from Arthur Hogan. It is alleged that the prosecutor, who keeps a stand in the market, lay asleep in his stall at the time of the theft, and that the defendant, who had been with him previously, took the watch out of his pocket. On awakening, Hogan missed his watch, and inquired of Higgins about it. The latter denied all knowledge of it, but subsequently the watch was found in his pocket. The case was on trial at adjournment.

Discovery of More Antiquities—Opening of Another "Ohio Mound."

The Columbus Journal has the following:

Mr. William M. Heath, of Worthington, has recently unlocked the secrets of one of the ancient mounds in that vicinity, and and made some interesting discoveries.

The place referred to is so well known that more than mere reference is scarcely needed, so we proceed with the remark that there stands on the Western bank of the Olentangy, and near the village of Worthington, one of the antique tumuli of the period of the mound builders, which, owing to the objections of Mr. Vining, (now over eighty years old,) the father of the present owner—had never been opened through the family's innumerable applications for permission to tap it. It is about four hundred and eighty feet in circumference, one hundred and sixty feet in diameter, and thirty-five feet in height, and is composed of rich alluvial soil, apparently skimmed from the surface of the adjacent fields. Feeling interested in remains found in similar mounds, Mr. Heath with some difficulty got the required permit, and ran a tunnel from eastward to centre, and sunk a shaft from the top, intersecting the tunnel, developing hundreds of fine beds (ashes, charcoal, &c.,)—fragments of antique pottery, and remains of two skeletons, much decayed of course, surrounded on all sides by many undisturbed layers and coverings of wood, now decayed. The position of the skeletons was nearly east and west. Mr. Heath was prevented from pushing his explorations further on account of want of time. He is confident that interesting developments await the explorer, and though the terms of his permit require him to fill up the excavation, this, we learn, is done till Wednesday, and if any gentlemen of this city wish to continue the excavation, opportunity is offered, if application be made before the earth is replaced.

Keep Hard at It.

The Allegheny County Republican Executive Committee have passed the following resolutions at a meeting at the headquarters:

Resolved, That we urge upon our political friends of Pittsburgh and Allegheny, and throughout the county, to devote the coming week exclusively to the perfecting of their party organizations, the appointment of block and vigilance committees in every ward, borough, township and election precinct, the appointment of challenges at the polls, and such other matters of detail as will insure an overwhelming Republican triumph.

Resolved, That we urge upon every patriotic citizen, at this critical hour, at whatever personal sacrifice, give one week of labor to the final preparations for the great struggle now so closely at hand.

Headquarters open at all hours for distribution of tickets, posters for the rolls, &c.

JOHN W. RIDDLE,
Chairman County Committee.
T. M. BAYNE, Secretary.

All Up.—We are informed, on the authority of H. A. Hill, Esq., superintendent, that it is all up with the poles for the fire alarm telegraph. The last one was put up yesterday greatly to the delight of the public. Chief among the poles is the very large one on the corner of Fourth and Smithfield streets; it is the largest pole in the city, 105 high being sixty-five feet, and will top all other lines. We do not think there is a more substantially built line in the United States.

Burglary in the Seventh Ward.—The residence of Mr. Bener, on Overhill street in the Seventh ward, was entered by thieves on Tuesday night while the family was absent at a wedding party in Lawrenceville, and several articles of ladies' wearing apparel was carried away. The burglars effected an entrance through the rear door, which had been simply latched and was found open on the return of Mr. Bener.

Slight Fire.—About seven o'clock yesterday morning a small shed attached to the dwelling of Rufus Kent, on Crawford street, in the Seventh ward, took fire and was partially consumed. The flames were extinguished by the aid of several buckets of water thrown upon them by several of Mr. Kent's neighbors. The fire department was not in service.

Insurance.—Messrs. Rinehearts, whose warehouse was consumed by fire on Tuesday night were insured to the amount of $16,000, divided as follows: In the Hartford, Pittsburgh, Liverpool, London, and Manufacturers and Merchants, $4,000. The insurance on the building, which is owned by John Rea, we were unable to ascertain.

Rev. Samuel Fairley, brother of Joseph Fairley, of this city, and late of King's Cliff, England, has received a unanimous call to the Penn Quarter congregational church of Philadelphia. Mr. Fairley is a very able divine, and his sojourn here already attracted considerable attention among the people in the upper section of that city.

Affecting Scene.—Queen Manning appeared before Alderman Humbert, yesterday, and instituted legal proceedings against Bernard Toole. The prosecution declared that, in a moment of passion, Toole struck his wife, and beat her into a bad state, and prayed that he might be held to bail for a hearing to-day.

Destruction.—In our report of the Wood street fire on Tuesday morning we stated that the wagon of Mr. Thos. Kinsman had been burned out. We intended to say the contrary, as we have since learned the correction.

Fire.—The alarm of fire from box [illegible] at [illegible] o'clock yesterday afternoon was occasioned by the burning of a small frame building [illegible] Penn street, [illegible] Twenty-fifth ward. The building was [illegible] and was owned by [illegible] Loss [illegible] insurance [illegible]

EARLY TELEGRAMS.

FROM NEW YORK.

Close of the M. E. Convention—Santa Anna Busy—The Murder of Walker—Mayor Monroe on the Riots—The Dix Mixture—Claims at the Comptroller's Office—Treasury Disbursements—Governor of Louisiana to be Sustained—Cabinet Meeting—Fenian Movements—Democratic Conference—Santa Anna Buying Steamers.

NEW YORK, October 3.—The session of the National Methodist Episcopal Convention closed yesterday. Addresses were delivered by Rev. Dr. Roberts, of Boston, on the history of Methodism in America, and by William McArthur, Esq., of the Irish delegation on the establishment of a Methodist Educational Institution of Ireland.

The society for the increase of the Ministry in the Protestant Episcopal Church, held its second meeting for the year last evening, at the church of the Incarnation, Madison Avenue. The report of the Board of Directors was read, During the year there have been one hundred and twenty scholars aided, making all who have received benefit from the Society since its organization, two hundred and sixty-two. One hundred of the beneficiaries have been ordained. Twenty-six dioceses have contributed to the support of the Society.

The office of General Santa Anna was overrun, yesterday, by parties who are anxious to enter the service of Mexico. It is reported that a firm on South street has been commissioned to buy up six steamers for the service of the Liberals. The loan of five million dollars, which Santa Anna was negotiating, has been consulted with three banking houses in this city.

The object of the murderer in killing Ralph Walker, on Cottrevilie Race Course, Saturday, is inexplicable, as a large amount of money was found on the person of deceased by those who first discovered his body. In the coroner's investigation no witness stated that he saw two men running from the place about the time the murder was committed. The supervisors of Queens county offer $500 reward for the arrest of the guilty parties.

The Herald's New Orleans special says: Mayor Monroe has furnished a message to the city council of New Orleans, in which he claims that the enemies of the Free State Convention of 1864 were responsible for the riots of July 30th in that city.

The Herald's Washington special says: Gen. Dix will only hold his appointment as naval officer for a few days. He has accepted the mission to France, which I understand was offered to Hon. Reverdy Johnson at his full and cordial approbation. Whether this fact is indicative of a change in our foreign policy I must leave you to infer from the General's well known opinions in regard to Mexico and the Monroe doctrine.

During the month of September, the Second Comptroller received 5,943 claims, of which number 3,854 were passed up for examination. The amount involved in the claims acted upon during the month was $81,569,176.

The disbursements of the Treasury on account of the several named departments during the first quarter of the present fiscal year, ending Septem er 30th, were as follows: War Department, $16,587,456; Interior Department, $12,120,526; Navy Department, $11,462,283. Total, $40,460,701.

A Times New Orleans special says: Information has been received here that the General Government will sustain the Governor in removing Sheriffs who failed to hold elections for Convention delegates, in accordance with the proclamation.

A Washington special says: The Cabinet were engaged this morning in discussing our relations with Mexico, and the situation of affairs was fully presented. All the members were in attendance. Mr. Seward alluded briefly to the representations that were made by Santa Anna on Monday and left the same for the future decision of those who were present. Rumor on the Avenue to-day, assign a foreign mission to General Strong, but the particular point to which he is to be assigned is not stated.

The Fenians continue mysteriously busy at the Stephens headquarters. Yesterday afternoon sundry substantial contributions of arms were received. One of these comprises twelve new rifles of the most approved manufacture. As heretofore stated, the C. O. J. H. sails for New Orleans on Saturday. All sorts of rumors are afloat concerning his business there, but they are painfully worn repeating. The business will develop itself in due time.

Peter Cagger, Thurlow Weed, and other representatives men of the Democratic and Conservative Republican parties, met, to-day, having a conference at the Astor House. Cagger is understood to be remonstrating against the course of the Times, of which Weed is an editor, but Weed says all the Radical articles are written, not by him, but by Raymond.

It is reported that the firm of Charles Lapight & Co., No. 56 South street, has been commissioned by Santa Anna to buy six steamers for the service of the Mexican Republican cause.

FINANCE AND TRADE.

WEDNESDAY, October 3, 1866.

The New York stock quotations to-day, were as follows: Gold, 147¼; 1881's, 111½; 5-20's, old, 111¾; 5-20's, new, 109½; 10-40s, 99½; 7-30's, 106; Michigan Southern R. R., 89½; Cleveland & Pittsburgh R. R., 90; Pittsburgh Fort Wayne & Chicago Railroad 108½; Erie, Railroad, 67¾; Western Union Telegraph Company, 51½; Chicago & Rock Island, 107½; Chicago & North Western, 42¾; do preferred, 73¾.

Gold has receded one-half per cent from the highest quotation of yesterday, which is accounted for by the fact that Five Twenties have advanced two per cent in London, as well as the heavy sales of cliques and foreign bankers. Nevertheless, the tone of the market is reported firm, and an advance is not improbable. In governments, there is but comparatively little doing.

Railroad stock speculation has directed public attention in that direction. Fortunes are now being realized by capitalists who had the means and the nerve to "pitch in," when others were holding back for lower prices. The monthly earnings of the different leading roads have been published and compared with former years, but one very important point was omitted, the corresponding decline in the expenses, besides doing away with the heavy item expended for improvements.

Our local stock market is rather dull, as there seems to be but little demand for investment. It is said that there were offers to sell corporation bonds to-day considerably below par, and we must still point out the danger parties incur by investing in such securities without having an absolute surplus of funds.

—The following comparative statement shows the average condition of the leading items of the Philadelphia Banks for the past and previous week:

	Last week.	This week.
Capital	$14,342,500	$14,342,500
Loans	30,787,891	31,037,507 Dec. $250,198
Specie	782,305	782,924 Dec. 10,371
Legal-tenders	24,905,925	24,672,903 Dec. 232,985
Deposits	42,966,635	43,053,875 Inc. 886,834
Circulation	9,901,273	9,905,497 Dec. 2,776

The bank average of leading items ruled nearly steady last week, except in the items of legal-tenders, which declined $232,963, and the item deposits, which increased $86,904. The loans showed an increase of a quarter of a million of dollars. As the banks now class their profuses of Government bonds under the head of loans, it is not certain whether the increase named is in investments of this character, or whether it is to any considerable extent discounts of legitimate business paper.

—The Chicago Tribune, of Tuesday, reports money matters in that city as follows:

There was an active demand for money to-day from all quarters, and the market was closer if anything than it was on Saturday. The fine weather giving the farmers an opportunity to market their grain, and in order to aid the movement of the crops to this city, the country banks are checking very freely on their balances here. The demands of the produce trade were also very liberal, and there was more inquiry for loans on mercantile account. Owing to this drain on currency, the banks were obliged to discriminate very closely on all paper offering for discount. None but good customers whose claims could not be denied, found accommodation, and such obtained as easy at the current rate —10 per cent. In the open market good signatures were taken at 1@1½ per cent per month, and less desirable names at 1½@2 per cent. Call loans on Government's range at 6@7 per cent. Mortgage loans are easy at 7@8 per cent.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, WEDNESDAY, October 3, 1866.

The produce markets continue quiet and a little dull, though there are no remarkable fluctuations in values. The demand for most of the leading commodities is somewhat restricted, and the transactions are mostly of a local and unimportant character.

GRAIN—Nothing doing in Wheat—but very little in market. Oats firm and a shade higher; sale of 900 bushels at 50 per car load, in store, at 47; and small sales from store at 50. Corn is firm and higher; sale of 2 cars prime shelled at 80. Rye is quoted at $1 to $1.05. No movement in Barley. Prime Spring may be quoted at $1.10@1.12.

FLOUR—Is firm with a fair local demand and prices are well sustained. We continue to quote at $9 to $9.50 for Spring Wheat, and $10 to $11.50 for Winter Wheat brands. Sale of 100 bbls "Bartletts" to arrive at $12.50. Rye Flour and Cornmeal unchanged.

PROVISIONS—Bacon is quiet and a little dull but unchanged. We quote at 17½ to 17¾ for Shoulders; 19 to 19½ for Ribbed Sides, and 23½ to 25½ for Sugar-cured Hams. Lards dull and small sales at 20. Mess Pork is selling at $33 to $34.

SEEDS—Flaxseed has declined, and cannot now be fairly quoted above $3. Timothy Seed is ranging in small sales in a retail way at $2½ to $3.25. No movement in Clover.

CHEESE—Is in pretty good supply, and quoted steady at 11 to 15 for Western Reserve; 15 to 16 for Hamilton, and 21 to 22 for Goshen.

BUTTER—Is steady, with a demand fully equal to the supply, and we can report regular sales at from 30 to 35 for good to prime; and choice at 37 to 38.

APPLES—Dull, with a supply considerable in excess of the demand but unchanged. We quote at 2 to 2.50 per barrel, according to quality; commonly at $2 to $2.50.

SWEET POTATOES—Owing to a falling off in the receipts, the market is firmer, and we now quotate at $2.75 to $3 per bbl.

ONIONS—Steady, with a demand fully equal to the supply, and we can report regular sales at 25 to 26 for fresh packed.

HOPS—The supply of old crop is nearly exhausted, and new crop is selling in a regular way at 65. The yield of Hops is reported light this season, but the quality is better.

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, WEDNESDAY, October 3, 1866

CRUDE—The market for Crude, although firm, was less active to-day, owing to the fact that buyers and sellers were apart in their feelings and views, the latter endeavoring to establish an advance, to which the former were unwilling to submit. We continue to quote at 14, in bulk and barrels returned, and 19, bills included, with sales of twenty-three hundred barrels reported. It was rumored that there had been offers to buy at 14½, but we have good reason to discredit these rumors, being cognizant of offers to sell at that figure without finding purchasers. Some holders are asking 14½ and even 15, but thus far there has been no sales above 14, that we are aware of.

REFINED—There was a decidedly better feeling in the market for bonded oil during the early part of the to-day; but, towards evening, owing to a rumor of a failure from Philadelphia, adverse influences from the east, this market closed decidedly flat, and, so far as we could learn, there was not a single well authenticated sale during the entire day. Early in the day there were bona fide offers for 47 to 47½, delivered in Philadelphia, and refusals were even asked for at 46, but in the afternoon the great bulk of the orders were withdrawn. The cause assigned for this apparent and sudden stagnation is attributed to the decline in gold, as well as to the advance in European freights. No movement in free oil.

New York Stock and Money Market.

NEW YORK, Oct. 3.—The demand for money is more sensitive, which is quite natural in view of the immense speculation at the stock exchange. The supply continues very abundant and is more than ample for the wants of the brokers. The gold market closed up firmly, at 148¾ cash. Gold opened at ¼ per cent, had fell off to ⅛ per cent, and we did hear reports of loans flat. The market for foreign exchange is dull, and private bankers' bills are quoted nominally, at 109¾. The government securities remained firm to the close of the day, which is as easy as the money quotations: 5-20 Coupons, '65 109¾@109¾; 10-40 Coupons, 98½@99¾; July 7-30s 106@106¾.

The stock market at the last open board was generally steady, and without any market change from the second board. Prices after the call showed an upward movement in Erie. New York Central, Illinois Central and Fort Wayne, while the balance of the list was firm. Western Union stock has been taken hold of by a clique, and higher prices are mentioned. The excitement in the market throughout the day was equal to anything witnessed at the Stock Exchange, and the fluctuations have been wide and frequent. The transactions have been enormous in some of the leading shares, say on Erie and North West Common. The Erie movement is the great feature of the market, and continues to puzzle the street.

The Post's money article says, a slight lull in the speculative feeling in Wall street, but on whether this favor has as yet spent its force is by no means certain. Gold is less or and less active to-day; it is also more plentiful for delivery, and is lending at ¼ premium. The highest rate paid yesterday being ½. The loan market is more active, and symptoms developed during the last few days are interpreted by conservative bankers, to presage a growing scarcity, which may in little time produce a tight market, a temporary stringency. The rate for call loans is 6@7, less active. Governments steady and fairly dealt in. Bonds, New York Central was 118¾; Erie, 90¾; 90; North Western, 44; do preferred 74; Rock Island, 107¾; Fort Wayne, 108¾; Foreign Exchange is dull. Bills at 60 days on London, are quoted at 108½@107; for Commercial, 107½@108½; for bankers do at short sights, 109@109.

The following were the quotations at the o'clock open Board: Ohio and Mississippi Certificates, 33¾; Quicksilver, 54; Western Union Telegraph, 51¾; New York Central, 118½; Erie, 90¾; Michigan Central, 140¾; Michigan S. & N. I., 102¾; Michigan Southern and Northern Illinois, 89½; Illinois Central, ex-dividend, 125¾; Cleveland and Pittsburgh, 90¾; Cleveland & Toledo, 117½; Cleveland and Pittsburgh, 90¾; Chicago, Rock Island and Pittsburgh, 107½; Chicago and North Western, 44½; do preferred, 74½; Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago, 108½; Ohio 6's, 107.

Money loans at five, at 6@7 per cent. Sterling quiet at 109@109½ for sight and long, opening at 109¾ demand, to 107½@108 for 60 days. Gold steady at 147¾@148 cash, opening at 148¾ demand, to 148¼@148½ cash. Government bonds firmer and in demand. Sales at the first Board were as follows: $1,000 Illinois Central 7's, 90; $5,000 Erie 7's, 90; $1,000 Pittsburgh, Ft. W. & Chicago 7's, 108½; $1,000 Cleveland & Pittsburgh 7's, 102½; $1,000 Cleveland & Toledo 7's, 117½; $1,000 Chicago & Rock Island 7's, 107½; $1,000 Chicago & N. W. 7's, 89; $1,000 Chicago & N. W. 7's, 89; $1,000 Chicago & N. W. 7's, 89
